The Queen's Platinum Jubilee Shoot

(NSRA Regional Long Range Competition 2022)

Saturday 2nd July & Sunday 3rd July, 2022 at Denwood Range, Countesswells Road, Aberdeen

The Haig Meeting is a two-day open shoot at 50 metres and 100 yards. It will feature the first stage and Final of the Earl Haig Scottish Open Championship. A number of other squaddled and unsquaddled competitions will be run. This will include the first stage of The Queen's Platinum Jubilee Shoot (NSRA Regional Long Range Competition 2022).

There will be three squaddled dewar competitions on Saturday morning and afternoon (Haig first stage) and Sunday morning. The Haig B,C,D Special Final will be held on Sunday afternoon followed by the main final for the leading 20 shooters in the first stage. A squaddled anysights dewar competition will be held on Saturday evening.

The Queen's Platinum Jubilee Shoot

FIRST STAGE: This is one of six venues for this event, details of which may be found by visiting www.nsra.co.uk

Entrants will be issued with stickers for 40 shots at 50m and 40 shots at 100 yards. These can be shot concurrent with the squaddled competitions or during unsquaddled details.

Cash prizes will be awarded in all classes at the meeting. In addition to this, from each of these events the top three in each class will be invited to a final on Saturday 17th September, again in classes X to D and there will be a highest score final for the top forty selected from all regions on Sunday 18th September both at Sywell Range again by invitation. Cash prizes will awarded in all classes and also the high score final.

Classification

Where competitions are run in classes there will be 5 classes – X, A, B, C, and D per National classification.

Unclassified competitors (those who did not have an NSRA National Classification at the end of 2019) must submit an average based on the best 10 of their last 12 scores on NSRA (BM/89 Series) short range targets ex 100 or an average on 50m international/50yd NSRA proportional targets ex 600.

Class	Short Range	50m/50yd
A	98.0 and above	580 and above
B	96.5 and under 98.0	570 and under 580
C	94.0 and under 96.5	560 and under 570
D	below 94.0	below 560

Squadding

All details will be of 20 minutes duration with a further 10 minutes for target changing and equipment preparation. Competitors will be notified of their firing point and detail time within the blocks shown in the timetable below. Other details for unsquadded shooting will be available for reservation on the day at the range.

Reception

On arrival, report for registration and collect targets & confirm squadding times.

Rules & Range Safety

All shooting will be governed by the NSRA rules. Any dispute will be decided by three or more members of the Range committee, or their elected deputies. Any uncased rifle must either have the bolt/action removed or a breach plug inserted at all times, except when firing a detail. Transgressors may be disqualified from the meeting at the discretion of the Range Committee.

Results And Challenges

All scores will be displayed as quickly as possible. It is the responsibility of competitors to ensure their scores are correctly recorded before leaving the meeting. A score may be challenged on payment of £5.00, which will be refunded if the challenge is upheld.

Liability

ADSRA and Denwood RA will not accept any liability for loss or damage to property left on the range.

Data Protection

It is a condition of entry that you give permission for the NSRA and ADSRA/DRA to use your data for the purpose of administering the meeting and the sending out of results. Your data will not be passed to any third party. The NSRA Privacy Policy can be viewed on their website www.nsra.co.uk. The ADSRA and DRA Privacy Policies can be viewed on the clubhouse noticeboard.
